

Haitong Bank encourages multilateral business between Portugal, China and the UK

Lunch-conference, March 16th, Corinthia Hotel in Lisbon

Jose Maria Ricciardi, CEO of Haitong Bank, joins Cai Run, Ambassador of the People's Republic of China and Kirsty Hayes, UK Ambassador, at a lunch-conference on the 16th of March, in Lisbon.

Haitong Bank, in partnership with the Portuguese-Chinese Chamber of Commerce and Industry and the Chamber of Portuguese-British Trade, will hold a lunch-conference on the 16th of March, with the presence of the Ambassadors of China and the United Kingdom in Lisbon, Cai Run and Kirsty Hayes, entitled "Portugal-United Kingdom-China: How will our futures be aligned."

Jose Maria Ricciardi, CEO of Haitong Bank, states: "These initiatives are essential to increase the flow of business between these three countries and not only promote the influx of new investments, as well as the internationalisation of the Renminbi. In this respect, Haitong Bank is a key and major player with a unique position to connect the world markets, to one of the largest and fastest growing economies in the globe."

For more information:

Nádia Novais | nnovais@haitongib.pt | +351 96 458 41 57